K6m heist suspects flee from court cell

By JENNIFER NKUI

TWO suspects allegedly involved in the K6 million G4S robbery escaped from custody on Wednesday.

The suspects were at the Waigani Committal Court for mention but escaped while being led to a police truck for their transfer.

The escape took place at the Waigani National Court holding cells at about 1pm.

A source said the suspects were picked up by a green vehicle that allegedly had been waiting for them and monitoring their movements.
